Happy Father's Day Project From Grade 6
 My first love, my first hero 🧑🏻

love → Father's day

Background my First hero for me, he's very kind for me. Father is the best example of a superhero. My father works tirelessly day and night for my family. We celebrate Father's day every year. If I'm in any trouble, the first person I remember is my father. My Father is the most important in my life.
up :)

My father is someone everyday who has a day full of profound reflection. He teaching me the difference between good and bad. I think that One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters. sometimes someone heart my feeling bad. I don't care because my father will make me happy. I promise that I will reward my father when I grow
